

Ginger

PRIVATE VILLA

Hillside in Petite Saline, the spectacular five bedroom Villa Ginger boasts stunning views. As a bonus, guests are treated to fiery sunsets, best viewed from the expansive pool terrace, with a beverage. The oversized infinity pool is lined with black tiles to keep it toasty. Ginger's outdoor living space includes a gazebo, a sunken deck, and an expansive terrace that encompasses a covered dining area seating a dozen. The living room is comfortably furnished for feet-up TV viewing and the kitchen is well equipped to handle the culinary needs of a crowd. The wine cooler is at the ready.

All five bedrooms boast a water view, have French king beds and beautifully appointed en suite baths. Three, identical, are on the main level where their bathrooms look out to the garden. Two are lower level on either side of a terrace with a Jacuzzi. The lower level also includes a fitness room, an adjacent kitchenette and a full bath. An ample parking area accommodates several cars and makes "coming and going" easy-breezy for all.
